

Workshop on Core Skills and Techniques of Grief Therapy

This course examines key concepts related to the field of bereavement. Topics include current conceptualization of the grief process, contexts of grieving, challenges in bereavement and grief in a global perspective. The course will provide participants with the knowledge that enabling them to work more effectively with grieving individuals, couples, families or groups coping with loss.