

Workshop on Quality Care at End-of-Life in Acute Setting

Quality care at end-of-life in acute setting requires the early discussion on advance care planning (ACP) and implementation of care plan for the imminently dying. The programs include 2 days of the workshop aims to facilitate health care professionals to develop knowledge, skills and attitude that will enable them to support the terminally-ill patients and their family caregivers along the patient journey with terminal disease until death.