

Ms. Faith Liu

Nurse Consultant (Palliative Care)

Queen Elizabeth Hospital

Ms. Liu graduated as a Registered Nurse in Hong Kong and completed her palliative care training in UK. Subsequently she earned a master degree in “Family Counseling & Family Education” in the Chinese University of HK. She is one to the pioneer in hospice development and was appointed as a pioneer nurse specialist of palliative care in HK. She also worked as a bereavement counselor, ward manager in Grantham Hospital. In 2012, Ms Liu joined the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, where she works as a Nurse Consultant (Palliative Care). Ms. Liu produces the publication and research on the topics of cancer pain; community palliative care in Hong Kong; preparing cancer patients to die at home; health problems encountered by dying patients receiving palliative home care until death etc.