

Workshop on Applying Logotherapy in End-of-Life and Bereavement Care

The objective of this workshop is to let participants acquire a basic understanding on Logotherapy as a meaning-centered approach, and learn about the application of Logotherapy in End-of-Life care and bereavement care in different settings. The workshop also includes reflective sessions for participants to reflect on their own attitudes in working with dying patients and bereaved persons through understanding Logotherapy.