

Ms Yung Lai
Marriage and Family therapist

Ms Yung Lai is a marriage and family therapist and a social worker. She works extensively with the frail elderly, chronic patients and their caregivers for more than twenty years. She is expert in adopting self-help approach and family-based intervention in delivering psychosocial support for the service users. She has been conducting various trainings and issued several publications on the areas.