

Workshop on Spiritually Sensitive Assessment and Interventions in End-of-Life Care: Theory, Practice, and Experience

This workshop will provide training in spiritually sensitive end-of-life care through presentations, case examples discussion and interactive exercises. It will introduce a framework of values, knowledge and skills and illustrate its application in medical, hospice and palliative care contexts. Participants will learn specific techniques for spiritual assessment and spiritual support activities.