

Mrs Hwi-ja Canda

Medical Social Worker

Lawrence Memorial Hospital in Lawrence, Kansas

Mrs Hwi-Ja Canda has been a medical social worker at Lawrence Memorial Hospital in Lawrence, Kansas for 27 years. She also served as supervisor for many social work intern students and has taught courses on medical social work and spiritually sensitive social work at the University of Kansas. Mrs Canda has extensive experience with social work in palliative care and hospice contexts. She has National Association of Social Workers' social work specialty certifications in advanced case management and in health care. Mrs Canda has presented on related topics in the USA and several other countries.