

Working with Patient with Advanced Cancer: Psychosocial Assessment and Intervention

This course will introduce the bio-psychosocial spiritual assessment framework for patients with advanced cancer. Participants will learn to use different evidence based measurement tools for screening and assessment. A community based intervention plan based on the assessment will be developed to address the physical, practical, psychosocial and spiritual needs of patients. Key intervention foci and principles will be highlighted.