

Dr Sin Ngai Chuen

Chief Manager (PS&RM)
Patient Safety and Risk Management Department
Quality and Safety Division
Head Office, Hospital Authority

Dr Sin is a specialist in Pediatrics by background and training. He is currently the Chief Manager of Patient Safety and Risk Management Department under Quality and Safety Division in HA Head Office.

In his current position, Dr Sin has been overseeing corporate clinical incidences management and driving the services development of four clinical specialties (including Pediatrics, Orthopedics, Obstetrics and Gynecology and Ophthalmology). Furthermore, under his leadership his team had formulated multidisciplinary and cross specialties Projects for drive quality and safety improvement across various domains. Regarding Clinical Ethics, he is the current senior executive overseeing its overall development in HA including Advanced directives (AD) and Advanced Care Planning, etc. To support the Government's AD consultation and legislation underway, he also taken up the role as subject officer fostering inputs to share HA experience with community counterparts, relevant stakeholder and assisting the Government's planning work.

Notwithstanding Dr Sin's solid management experience in Head Office, he had also demonstrated distinguished leadership during his service in Clusters and Hospitals. Prior to his current role, he was the Chief Manager (service transformation and planning), Cluster Service Director (Q&S) and Deputizing HCE of Haven of Hope Hospital in Kowloon East Cluster between 2012 -2015.