

1. To learn mental capacity assessment for the health and social service professionals
2. To understand clinical features for persons with dementia approaching their end of life.
3. To understand common medical intervention for person with dementia at least stage of life
4. To discuss “Is arrangement of Advance Directives (AD) or Advance Care Planning (ACP) appropriate for clients with dementia?”
5. To enhance the communication skills between person with dementia at last stage of life and their care giver
6. To have a brief understanding on bereavement care specified for person with dementia