

Ms Lorraine Chan

Medical Social Work Department in-charge

Haven of Hope Hospital

Ms Chan is a holder of Master of Social Work. She is also a teacher of Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy. She is committed on her career life being a medical social worker. She has been working at medical social service field for about 25 years. Ms. Chan is keen on palliative care service and related education. Her main service targets are elderly and terminally ill patients as well as their families. She also supervises a team of medical social workers on professional practice.