

Dr Welgent Chu

Medical Doctor and Social Work Consultant

Dr Chu is both a registered medical practitioner and a registered social worker in Hong Kong. His medical career focused mainly on the medical care for elderly person especially in the fields of dementia and end-of-life care (EOLC). In 2000, Dr chu and his nursing home team members pioneered the EOLC for the nursing home residents in Hong Kong. Academic works on these areas published in local medical journals and international conferences. Dr Chu is also keen on promoting inter-professional collaboration and learning, particularly on the medical and social integration in clinical practice.