

Dr. Yat Lui FUNG

Lecturer

Department of Social Work and Social Administration

The University of Hong Kong

Dr. Fung has been managing a number of mental health projects and is an experienced implementer and trainer of the Integrative Body-Mind-Spirit intervention model. His research studies focus on mental wellbeing and the quality of life of people with chronic diseases, such as children with eczema and their parent caregivers, and cancer patients and

their

family

caregivers

