

Ms Kam Fung Wong

Registered Social Worker

Somatic Experiencing Practitioner (SEP)

Ms Kam Wong is a registered social worker. She has worked with cancer patients and their families for over 20 years. Her work mainly focuses in individual & family counseling, psychotherapeutic group counseling, and clinical supervision.

Kam received her master degrees in Applied Psychology and Trauma Psychology from the Chinese University of Hong Kong and the City University of Hong Kong respectively. She is also a trained Somatic Experiencing Practitioner. In 2014, she presented a paper “Handling negative emotion by somatic approach – a body work experience” in the 3rd Symposium of Somatic Experiencing in Brazil.

Besides being a SEP, Kam also practices Satir Family Therapy for years. She integrates these approaches in her current counseling work.
