

Mr. Wong Kon Chi (Chi sir)

Author of book series for social group work and eLearning

Wong Kon Chi, a registered social worker (RSW), with extensive experience on practicing experiential learning approach with children, youth, parents and young-olds. He is currently a part-time Lecturer in the Department of Social Work, The Chinese University of Hong Kong and fieldwork supervisor in The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, teaching Groupwork and Service-Learning. When teaching Service-Learning during the pandemic, he has been coaching tertiary students from various disciplines to integrate technology during service delivery with caregivers. In current years, he has conducted many training workshops for secondary school teachers on using e-Learning in field trips and develop curriculum for Education Bureau. He is also the start-up consultant of Eldpathy, a social enterprise organizing elderly simulation programmes in community promoting Age-friendliness. Starting from the 1st wave pandemic, he has been invited by different NGOs to conduct hundreds of trainings on online group facilitation through Zoom, serving thousands of social workers to promote digital transformation. To consolidate his front-line experiences, he has authored more than 10 books about Social Work Group, and e-Learning. Facebook Page: facebook.com/socialworkgroup