

Wong Chi On Rex

Senior Social Work Practitioner

Former director of bereavement counselling services, die-in-home projects and farewell homecare projects

Mr Wong is a social work graduate of HKBU & CUHK and previous Registered Social Worker in Hong Kong. Specializing in death, dying and bereavement in the welfare sector for over a decade. Former Centre Director of The Comfort Care Concern Group, carrying out various types of bereavement counseling and related supporting services. Former Project Coordinator in Tung Wah Group of Hospitals for specially developing end-of-life care services in the district of New Territories East, including Die-In-Home Project as well as Farewell Homecare Project. Hundreds of educational talks, lectures and professional training on death-related topics for NGOs, universities, governmental organizations, hospitals and the general public had been delivered. Article writer in magazines on death, dying and bereavement for over ten years.